January 31 , 2010 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Did you tune out the second reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians today? If you have been to a lot of weddings, it is likely that you've heard this paean to love at most of them. It's a favorite that gets chosen again and again. And because of that, the very familiarity of the words can lose their meaning. "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous? It is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury?" Oh, yeah, I know that one; I've heard it all before. No need to listen."

Because of the context in which so often we hear those words (a marriage celebration) we sometimes miss what Paul is really trying to convey. The Corinthians were disputing among themselves what the better gifts of the Spirit were and who had the greater ones. Paul takes them to task, rather harshly, by telling them that all the prophecies and sacrifices are nothing compared to love.

We can feel righteous about many things, and our sense of justice can breed high expectations about equitable treatment and our rights in the world. We expect our "fair share" all the way around. Sometimes our "gift" turns out to be one of self-justification.

Paul turns those expectations on their head. His proclamation that love is the way suddenly put us in a different position. Love does not seek its own interests and it does not brood over injuries. These are not easy things to put into practice, but it is what is asked of us as believers in Christ. Maybe that's really why we tune out these words sometimes, because they are not easy to put into practice. But love is the essence of our faith-love of God, and love for one another.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The folks in Nazareth were proud of Jesus, their home-grown celebrity. When he told them his mission was to those outside his family and friends, they felt cheated and angry. Jesus did not back down: It is important to care for those entrusted to us in our family but we must go beyond family and care for strangers also.

FROM THE FALCONS’ NEST

As students and teachers study and live the Gospel at All Saints Catholic School, we understand that Jesus modeled the role of Rabbi or teacher and the disciples were learners. Catholic education provides an opportunity to learn about and live the Catholic faith day to day in real life situations.

At the heart of what we learn is our ability to connect with others, most especially those who are farthest away and most in need. Today, the eyes of the world are on Haiti. During the next several weeks, our students and staff will be joining with other schools in our deanery to support the work of Father Rick Frechette, a Passionist Missionary, who ministers in two hospitals in Haiti. Father Rick is both a priest and a doctor. He also works alongside the Missionaries of Charity (Mother Teresa’s Religious Order) in their center for the sick and destitute dying. Not only are we collecting monetary donations, but we are praying daily for a people who are facing unimaginable suffering and physical pain. Our daily coin collection is now underway. “Change for Change for the People of Haiti” is just one small effort in our response to the poverty and misery so many of our Haitian brothers and sisters face day to day.

CHILI COOK OFF

Falcon Club presents Super Bowl Chili Cook-Off on Friday, February 5, from 6-9 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Do you make a great chili? Can you win the “Golden Ladle”? All chili entries will be judged by our 3 “celebrity” judges. There will also be a People’s Choice award. Bring a double batch of chili and let us decide if you have what it takes to win the Cook-Off. If you aren’t a “chili-maker”, don’t worry. Bring a side dish or a dessert to share and beverages for your family. This is a Family Event and is offered at no cost.

PILGRIMAGE TO ITALY

In an effort to gain the required number of participants, the summer pilgrimage to Italy has been refocused to include the cities of Rome, Assisi, Florence and Venice. Also, the tour has been scaled back to the dates of June 25-July 6 and the cost has been lowered. If you have an interest in this redesigned pilgrimage, please contact the Parish Office so that we can send you a new itinerary. Also, please share this information with others you may know who might be interested. We can accommodate even those living in other US cities as well as those who wish to meet up with the group in Italy.
